The Turtle & The Hare

The hare is not only a beautiful little creature but is known for its speed and cleverness. Turtles, on the other hand, are amphibians that are more down to earth and, of course, slower in all aspects of life.

One fine day, the hare bragged and came up with the idea of holding a race with the turtle. The turtle agreed, and the race began.

The hare managed to get a good lead over the turtle because he was an excellent runner. However, such was the ego of the hare that it not only goes way ahead of the turtle but also decides to take a nap at some distance just before the finish line. Such was the ego of the hare that he was convinced he would easily win even if he slept for some time to rub it in.

The turtle, on the other hand, was far slower than the hare. However, he keeps up with the race with determination and without cutting corners. The turtle managed to reach the finish line just as the hare was waking up! He, nevertheless won the race even though he was a far slower runner than the hare and not even rubbing it in the hare's face.

Moral Of The Story

As long as you are steady and determined, you will always win, no matter what your speed is. Laziness is your enemy, as is pride.

~BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES~

Happy Birthday! Jan. 31, Elmer Yoder 1964

The Door That Never Closes

There's a door that never closes, though it opens but one way-It's the door that leads to Heaven
at the end of life's long day.
It's the threshold of forever
where the heart is always glad,

It's a respite for the weary and a comfort for the sad.
It's the door to peace and healing and the door to joy and grace
Where the Master greets
each guest by name
and with a warm embrace.

And the loved ones who pass through into the light that's shining there Find a sweet and perfect home within our Father's loving care.
