Fun Lizard Facts

- Lizards are reptiles.
- Some lizards can detach their tails if caught by predators.
- The upper and lower eyelids of chameleons are joined, leaving just a small hole for them to see through. They can move their eyes independently however, allowing them to look in two different directions at the same time.
- Chameleons have long tongues which they rapidly extend from their mouth, too fast for human eyes to see properly.
- Chameleons generally eat insects.
- Some chameleons have the ability to change color. This helps them communicate with each other and can also be used for camouflage.
- Geckos have no eyelids.
- Geckos have unique toes which allow them to be good climbers.
- Iguanas have a row of spines which run down their back and tail.
- Green iguanas are popular pets.
- The Komodo dragon is the largest type of lizard, growing up to 3 meters

(10 feet) in length.

- They are found on a number of different Indonesian Islands.
 - Komodo dragons are carnivores (meat eaters) and can be very aggressive.

~BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES~

Happy Birthday! Sept. 5, LaDonna Nissley 2000

Between a Rock and a . . .

Two hunters came across a bear so big that they dropped their rifles and ran for cover. One climbed a tree while the other hid in a nearby cave.

The bear was in no hurry to eat, so he sat down between the tree and the cave to reflect on his good fortune. Suddenly, and for no apparent reason, the hunter in the cave came rushing out, almost ran into the waiting bear, hesitated, and then dashed back in again. The same thing happened a second time.

When he emerged the third time, his companion in the tree frantically called out, "Woody, are you crazy? Stay in the cave until he leaves!" "Can't," panted Woody, "There's another bear in there."

Do you ever feel like you are caught between a rock and a hard place? Problems, struggles, and difficulties can come one after another and leave us feeling overwhelmed. At such times, remember the encouraging messages God has given His people. Next time you are between two bears, remember these messages from God.

* There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. (1 Corinthians 10:13).

* Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you (James 4:8).

* Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you (Matthew 6:33).
