The Farmer And The Well

One day, a farmer was looking for a water source for his farm, then he bought a well from his neighbor. The neighbor, however, was cunning. The next day, as the farmer came to draw water from his well, the neighbor refused to let him take any water.

When the farmer asked why, the neighbor replied, "I sold you the well, not the water," and walked away. Distraught, the farmer went to the emperor to ask for justice. He explained what had happened.

The emperor called on Birbal, one of his nine, and wisest, courtiers. Birbal proceeded to question the neighbor, "Why don't you let the farmer take water from the well? You did sell the well to the farmer?"

The neighbor replied, "Birbal, I did sell the well to the farmer but not the water within it. He has no right to draw water from the well."

Birbal said, "Look, since you sold the well, you have no right to keep the water in the farmer's well. Either you pay rent to the farmer, or take it out immediately." Realizing that his scheme had failed, the neighbor apologized and went home.

The Moral: Cheating will not get you anything. If you cheat, you'll pay soon enough.

The Story Of Time

It is a mistake to think time is going. Time is not going. Time is here until the world ends. It is you that is going. You don't waste time. Time is infinite. You waste yourself. You are finite.

It is you that grows old, time doesn't. So make better use of it. And one of the worst things to do with time is comparing yourself to others.

A cow eats grass and gets fat but if a dog eats grass, it will die. Never compare yourself with others. Run your race. What works for one person may not work for you. Focus on the gifts and talents God gave you and don't be envious of the blessings He gave others.

If a rose smells better than tomatoes, It doesn't mean the rose can make a better stew. Don't try to compare yourself to others. You also have your own strength, look for it and build on it.

All animals that exist, were in Noah's ark. A snail is one of those animals. If God could wait long enough for snails to enter Noah's ark; His door of grace won't close on you till you reach your expected end, only rely on him. Never look down on yourself, keep looking up. Remember, that, broken crayons still color.

"The Clock Of Life"

The clock of life is wound but once,
And no one has the power,
To tell just where the hands will stop,
At late or early hour.
To lose ones wealth is sad indeed,
To lose one's health is more,
To lose one's soul is such a loss,
That no one can restore.
The present only is our own,
Live, love, toil with a will,
Place no faith in tomorrow,
For the clock may then be still.
