Devotional #26 of The Father's Love Letter

I will never stop doing good to you.

I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me, so that they will never turn away from me. Jeremiah 32:40 (NIV Bible)

Father has made an everlasting covenant with you. His covenant was signed in the blood of His only Son, Jesus. He promises to never stop doing good to you. Never. His promise is true because He is faithful to keep His word. His covenant is irrevocable and everlasting.

You can have complete confidence in His pledge of love to you. In many of our life experiences, we are disappointed when promises are broken. Sometimes broken promises happen so often that we begin to become cynical and expect to be let down. But God is not like any human relationship that we could ever know. He is completely faithful and His word is His bond.

Your Father in Heaven has made a pledge to you with all of His heart and for all of eternity! Whenever you feel that everybody and everything is against you, be reminded that your Father in heaven is always on your side. He has made an everlasting promise to never stop doing good to you!

PRAYER

Father, I thank You that You will never stop doing good to me. Your Word is Your bond and I choose to believe Your Word to be true. Even when I don't feel like it, I pray that you will open my eyes to see all the goodness that surrounds me. In the name of your beloved Son, Jesus, I pray. AMEN.
