Devotional #34 of The Father's Love Letter

For I am your greatest encourager.

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal Encouragement and good hope, 17 encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word. 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17 (NIV Bible)

The Father is our greatest encourager! He has not come to condemn us, but to encourage us and give us hope. I believe that He stands on the sidelines cheering us on as we race down the field of life, all the while speaking hope into the deepest part of our being. His shouts of encouragement provide us with the strength that we need, when we need it, in order for us to finish the race that was uniquely charted for us.

I imagine Him running alongside of me, speaking words of affirmation as I continue to press on. With each loving glance and encouraging word, my muscles seem to strengthen and my endurance increases with the assurance that He loves me and wants me to finish well.

When I do stumble and fall, I am quickly picked up and reminded that I was never actually running the race on my own, for it was Jesus who had been carrying me all along as He ran in stride with His Father.

The Father and the Son truly are our greatest encouragers. May their eternal encouragement bring us hope and provide us with the strength we need in order to run the race set out before us.

PRAYER

Father, I thank You for loving me and being my greatest encourager. Help me to always listen for Your words of hope and eternal encouragement! Thank You for placing within me the life of Your Son, that through Jesus, I might be able to run the race that You have set before me. In the name of Your beloved son Jesus I pray, AMEN.
