1 Corinthians 13: 4-5

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not;
charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own,
is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil.

As Christians, we are called to love one another,
just as God loves us. In these verses, we are given a clear picture of what love should look like.
Love is not just an emotion, but it is also an action
that we need to choose daily.

Love is patient, even when we don't feel like it.
Love is kind, even when we are hurt or wronged.

It does not envy or boast, but instead,
it rejoices in the success of others.

Love does not dishonor others or seek to only serve oneself.
It is not easily angered and it does not keep a record of wrongs.

Let us strive to show love to those around us in the same way that God has shown love to us.

Let us choose to be patient, kind, humble, and selfless.
May we reflect God's love in our words and actions
today and always.
