The Shield of Faith, Excerpt from The Battle for Truth

-by Stacia McKeever, April 5, 2013

“Above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.” Ephesians 6:16 (ESV)

In the past, soldiers used their shields to detect attacks from the enemy and, sometimes, to push the enemy backward.

Faith is believing in God and trusting His Word even though we can't see Him (Hebrews 11:1). When we take up the shield of faith, we are firm in our beliefs about God based on His Word, and we can detect all the arrows (like these darts) our Enemy throws at us.

- Discouragement (“Does God really love me?” Yes! See Romans 5:8, 8:38–

39; 1 John 3:1)

- Doing wrong (“Can I really know the right thing to do?” Yes! See Psalm 119:9; 2 Timothy 3:16–17)

- Doubt (“Can I really trust God's Word?” Yes! See 2 Timothy 3:15–17)

- Deception (“Can I really know what is true?” Yes! See Deuteronomy 32:4; Psalm 25:5, 25:10, 119:151; John 14:6)

- Destruction (“Can I really stand strong in this battle?” Yes! See 1 Corinthians 10:13; Revelation 2:7, 3:5; Matthew 25:46; John 10:27–29)

Attitude is Most Important –

When it comes to happiness and success, nothing is more important than attitude. I love to spend time with positive and optimistic people because their attitude is contagious. Unfortunately, negative and pessimistic attitudes are also quite contagious. As the old saying goes, “Birds of a feather flock together.”

People with the right attitude tend to be innovative and independent thinkers. They are not afraid to think outside the herd. They will often be entrepreneurs and trailblazers. They are goal setters. They know that the best way to predict the future is to create it.

People with the right attitude are proactive – not reactive. They are not afraid of failure. If they fall down, they get back up, brush themselves off and learn from their mistakes. They seldom, if ever, whine or complain – and they NEVER blame others for their problems.

People with the right attitude see problems as opportunities. They are always looking for ways to make lemonade out of lemons. They realize that every dark cloud has a silver lining.

People with the right attitude tend to be spiritually grounded. They know who is really in control.

People with the right attitude often create win-win relationships with other positive people. They know that their success is often dependent upon the success of others.
