Noah's Ark in the Netherlands! September 7, 2012

A full size model of Noah's ark is now open to the public in the Netherlands! Johan Huibers built the ark using approximate measurements based on the "cubit" as described in the Bible (Genesis 6:14-17). A cubit is the average length of a man's arm from his elbow to his fingertips. 1 Mr. Huibers' ark is nearly 450 feet long and 75 feet tall! 2

We don't know exactly what the ark looked like, but Mr. Huibers' design makes it apparent that the ark was enormous and had plenty of room to accommodate all the animals. "Docked at Dordrecht in the southern Netherlands, its enormity is a reminder of the global Flood and of Noah's faithfulness to obey God by building the Ark and preaching God's warning of the coming judgment." 3

Looking for an ark to visit that is closer to home? Don't forget that the Creation Museum contains a Noah's ark exhibit. Also, the new Ark Encounter, a historically themed attraction, will be constructed in Northern Kentucky. It will contain a full-size replica of Noah's Ark which will be "the largest timber-frame structure in the USA." 4

Enjoy this inspirational collection of Father's Day quotes for Christian Fathers

● "A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society."

-- Billy Graham, Christian Evangelist

● "The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother."

-- Theodore Hesburgh, Catholic Priest and President Emeritus of the University of Notre Dame

● "My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it."

-- Clarence Budington Kelland,

● "It is much easier to become a father than to be one."

-- Kent Nerburn, U.S. Author and Educator

● "Blessed indeed is the man who hears many gentle voices call him father!"

-- Lydia M. Child, U.S. Author

● "We are given children to test us and make us more spiritual."

-- George Will, U.S. Journalist

When I was:

Four years old: My daddy can do anything.

Five years old: My daddy knows a whole lot.

Six years old: My dad is smarter than your dad.

Eight years old: My dad doesn't know exactly everything.

Ten years old: In the olden days, when my dad grew up, things were sure different.

Twelve years old: Oh, well, naturally, Dad doesn't know anything about that. He is too old to remember his childhood.

Fourteen years old: Don't pay any attention to my dad. He is so old-fashioned.

Twenty-one years old: Him? My Lord, he's hopelessly out of date.

Twenty-five years old: Dad knows about it, but then he should, because he has been around so long.

Thirty years old: Maybe we should ask Dad what he thinks. After all, he's had a lot of experience.

Thirty-five years old: I'm not doing a single thing until I talk to Dad.

Forty years old: I wonder how Dad would have handled it. He was so wise.

Fifty years old: I'd give anything if Dad were here now so I could talk this over with him. Too bad I didn't appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot from him.
