Living Lights in the Deep

Deep in the ocean, the sunshine is dim or never sheds its light. Yet everything is not pitch black. Green, blue, yellow, and red lights sparkle from an unexpected source—living creatures.

When Light Comes to Life

If you rode in a submarine to the bottom of the ocean, the sun would disappear, and the dark water would swallow you. But light is not missing down there.

God gave creatures of all shapes and sizes the ability to glow in colorful displays. From jellyfish to squid to fish with big, sharp teeth, many animals have special features that truly glow in the dark.

They're living, breathing lights!

Divisiveness –

Personally, I love a good argument or debate. It's part of my nature. It's part of my genetic makeup. Nearly everyone in my immediate family loves a good debate. Many of my friends love a good discussion or debate. There is absolutely nothing wrong with a good discussion or debate until it turns into an argument or a quarrel. At that point it becomes very dangerous and harmful.

Many years ago I read a book written by Dale Carnegie. In it he said, "No one ever wins an argument." Now hold on, I've won several arguments in my time. I proved, without a doubt, that I was right.

Maybe I did prove myself to be right and the other person to be wrong, but what did I really accomplish in doing this? What did I really prove? How did I make the other person feel? Did I really gain anything by winning the argument?

Some things in life are worth taking a stand for, but many things are not worth it. As the apostle Paul wrote in his letter to Titus, we should avoid foolish controversies and arguments. They are unprofitable and useless. We should be very careful that we don't become a divisive person. It might also be wise for us to avoid people who tend to be divisive.

Don't just GO to Church; BE the Church

Avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and arguments and quarrels about the law, because these are unprofitable and useless.

Warn a divisive person once, and then warn him a second time. After that, have nothing to do with him. Titus 3:9-10
