Warning

Bright colors and brilliant patterns can also send a clear signal: "Stay away!" If a predator ignores these loud decorations, it will have very bad dining experience. Cinnabar Moth Caterpillar

Striped like a tiger in orange and black, cinnabar moth caterpillars keep most birds away. That's because the plants that these caterpillars eat make them a revolting snack.

Bible Reading.

In the late 1970's I began speaking in churches. In one service I was casually talking about the importance of reading the Bible daily, and in a whim asked how many did that, without fail. I thought every Christian did that.

No one raised their hands. Not even the pastor.

Since then I have asked the same question of hundreds of churches, and it's always the same. Few read the Bible every day, without fail.

Maybe you're busy and skip a day now and then. Do you do that with your stomach? Do you go an entire day too busy or forgetting to eat food? Isn't it true--your belly comes before your Bible?

In my 42 years of being a Christian I have never missed one day.

Join me, and like Job, say, "I have esteemed the words of His mouth, more than my necessary food." Set a new year's resolution that is more important than food or your finance. Seek first the Kingdom of God and all the other necessities of life will be added to you.

Read Psalm One to see the wonderful promises directed at those who meditate on the Word both day and night.

You have enlisted in the greatest of all wars. So like a good soldier of Jesus Christ, discipline yourself to daily feed on the Word and you will have "good success."

No Bible, no breakfast. No read, no feed. Ray Comfort

Sunday school children were asked to draw their rendition of the Christmas story. Most of the children drew manger scenes to include the shepherds, angels, the star, the baby Jesus in the manger as would be expected. Little Jimmy proudly showed his picture of a jetliner. There were 4 distinct faces looking out the windows. When the Sunday school teacher asked Jimmy to explain the drawing, he said it was the "flight out of Egypt." He pointed to the one face and said "that is Joseph," another face was Mary, the little face of course was Jesus. The teacher asked him who is the face in the front of the plane. Jimmy replied, "It's Pontius, the pilot, of course."
