Evidence of the Flood

by Avery Foley on February 3, 2015

"The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters. And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered." (Genesis 7:18-19)

Scripture teaches us the true account of the history of the world. In Genesis we read that the people God had specially created were so violent and sinful that God sent a worldwide Flood to judge their sin. The only people saved were Noah and his family. If there really was a Flood that covered the whole earth, there should be evidence left behind. This is exactly what we find.

1. Sea Creatures Buried on the Tops of Mountains

Fossilized shellfish are found buried high in the Himalayas, the highest mountain range in today's world that was formed during the Flood (Psalm 104:8). How did these marine creatures get there? Our Bible verse tells us that at one time the whole earth—including the "high hills" of the pre-Flood world—were under water. So during the Flood, the rock layers that formed the Himalayas were laid down by water, and then later those high mountains were formed from them. <http://tinyurl.com/jw3djma>

Where is God?

An atheist asked where God was, when a man was recently caged and set on fire by Muslim terrorists.

To answer this, we will have to set aside his atheistic worldview. He doesn't believe that this was evil, because we are all just random animals that came about by accident, and there's therefore no ultimate right or wrong. This was merely typical of what happens thousands of times each day in the animal kingdom--the stronger of the species survives.

Let's instead adopt the Christian worldview and believe that this was indeed evil. The atheist's point then, is that if God is good and this was evil, He should have intervened with perhaps a bolt of lightning and killed the murderers before the murder took place.

While we are telling God what He should do, we should remind Him that over 400,000 people are murdered across the world each year. Many of those are by burning, drowning, suffocation, bombing, stabbing, shooting, strangling, poisoning, decapitation, and hammers to the head. Then there are the "honor" killings of Islam, the Hindu wives who are burned alive with their dead husbands, vicious rapists, drunk drivers who slaughter the innocent, drug pushers, child molesters, and those who kill millions of babies through abortion each year. So it looks like if we get God to do something about evil, there's going to be a lot of killing. Actually, that's His ultimate plan. He has set aside a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness. That will be a day of swift eternal justice that is going to be so thorough, the Bible warns it will also include all liars, thieves, adulterers, fornicators, homosexuals, and even every idle word we have spoken.

So be patient. Ultimate justice is coming. That's why we need a Savior. Ray Comfort. <http://tinyurl.com/oulh9s>

A man in a hurry, taking his 8-year-old son to school, made a turn at a red light where it was prohibited.

"Uh-oh, I just made an illegal turn!" the man said. "Aw, Dad, it's okay," the son said. "The police car right behind us did the same thing."
