Evidences for a world wide flood..

1. Sea Creatures Buried on the Tops of Mountains

Fossilized shellfish are found buried high in the Himalayas, the highest mountain range in today's world that was formed during the Flood (Psalm 104:8). How did these marine creatures get there? Our Bible verse tells us that at one time the whole earth—including the "high hills" of the pre-Flood world—were under water. So during the Flood, the rock layers that formed the Himalayas were laid down by water, and then later those high mountains were formed from them.

Attitude

When it comes to happiness and success, nothing is more important than attitude. I love to spend time with positive and optimistic people because their attitude is contagious. Unfortunately, negative and pessimistic attitudes are also quite contagious.

People with the right attitude tend to be innovative and independent thinkers. They are not afraid to think outside the herd. They will often be entrepreneurs and trailblazers. They are goal setters. They know that the best way to predict the future is to create it.

People with the right attitude are proactive – not reactive. They know that failing to plan is the same as planning to fail.

People with the right attitude are not afraid of failure. If they fall down, they get back up, brush themselves off and learn from their mistakes. They seldom, if ever, whine or complain – and they NEVER blame others for their problems.

People with the right attitude will seldom if ever say something can't be done. They realize that just because something has never been done does not mean that it is impossible to do.

People with the right attitude see problems as opportunities. They are always looking for ways to make lemonade out of lemons. They realize that every dark cloud has a silver lining.

People with the right attitude tend to be spiritually grounded. They know who is really in control.

People with the right attitude often create win-win relationships with other positive people. They know that their success is often dependent upon the success of others. Kit Pharo.
