CHILDREN'S CORNER

Trekking Through Proverbs
by Stacia McKeever on April 22, 2015
Wise Friend

Solomon wrote many proverbs about many different topics, but friendship was another area he talked a lot about. Those who follow the path of God's wisdom will have friends who are also on that same path (Proverbs 13:20). A wise friend loves at all times (Proverbs 17:17), encourages you to love God more (Proverbs 27:17), listens to correction (Proverbs 12:15), obeys his parents (Proverbs 13:1), wants to be on the wise path (Proverbs 11:27), and is kind to others (Proverbs 14:31)

Ken's Perspective

Published on Thursday, 04 February 2016 08:48

Q. Why does God allow hardship and trials?
A. For our good, according to Romans 8:28. "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to those that are the called according to His purpose." "All things" would include extreme trials such as the death of a loved one, or a major illness; it would include a job loss or prison time.

What is the good that "all things working together" actually accomplishes? Romans 8:29: "For whom He did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His dear Son..."

God allows hardships and trials to make us into the image of His Son. THAT'S GOOD. So if this time in prison makes this poor sinner a little more like Jesus, it will be good and I will be happy.

We are not discouraged or depressed about the future, because God is in the future and we are with God, therefore we are encouraged.

There are some things that can never be locked up behind prison walls. Truth. Conscience. Moral righteousness. The saving Gospel of Jesus.

"If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." (John 8:36)

By the grace of and mercy of God we will remain free, free indeed.

Dear supporters,

Judge William Sessions III has ordered Ken to report to serve his 27 month sentence on March 22nd. We're thankful they gave him a few more weeks with his family, and that he'll be able to be with his son when he visits in March.

Thank you for all your notes of encouragement on the guestbook page and contact page, and your prayers.

Any donations that are not needed for legal fees will be used to support Ken's family. Thank you so much.
