Trekking Through Proverbs
Where Do We Get Wisdom?
-by Stacia McKeever

Only the one true God of the Bible has all wisdom (COLOSSIANS 2:2-3). So, the best way to know true wisdom is by reading the book God wrote—the Bible (2 TIMOTHY 3:16). God used more than 40 different men to write down what He wanted us to know about Him and how to be wise.

There are two sections in the Bible. The 39 books of the Old Testament were written in the years before Jesus came to earth. The 27 books of the New Testament were written after Jesus returned to heaven about 2,000 years ago.

God gives us His wisdom throughout these books, but one book in particular is filled with wise sayings and principles.

An old legend tells of a prince with a crooked back. Despite his physical limitations he remained very proud and strong. So it was not surprising to his subjects when he called the most skilled sculptor among them and commissioned him to make a statue in the image of the prince. The instruction was clear, "Make a statue of me, but with a straight back. I would see myself as I might have been."

Upon completion the statue was presented to the pleased prince. It was so impressive many clamored for the statue to be placed at the palace gate for all to admire. The prince, however, refused and ordered it hidden in a secret part of his private garden - a place he alone could visit.

Time passed and many forgot about the magnificent statue. But the prince would visit it each day. He would stand before it and imagine what it would be like to stand straight and tall. Months became years until someone noticed the prince's back was becoming straight.

He was becoming the man in the statue. Each one of us, and everyone with whom the items contained in this issue of BulletinGold is in the constant process of becoming either a useful tool for Christ or Satan. It is our prayer the we all turn to Jesus for guidance in our spiritual development. Having done that, two of the most important questions we must strive to answer is: "Am I becoming more like Jesus or more like the world?" and "Who am I becoming?"
