SS Lesson:-----

Revelation 9

Adult and Youth Verse: And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. Revelation 9:6

Junior Verse: I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. Isaiah 45:12

Intermediate Verse: Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. Hebrews 11:3

SS Lesson for next week: Revelation 10

Adult and Youth Verse for next week: No Memory Verse

Evidence of the Flood

by Avery Foley on February 3, 2015

“The waters prevailed and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters. And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high hills under the whole heaven were covered.” (Genesis 7:18–19)

Scripture teaches us the true account of the history of the world. In Genesis we read that the people God had specially created were so violent and sinful that God sent a worldwide Flood to judge their sin. The only people saved were Noah and his family. If there really was a Flood that covered the whole earth, there should be evidence left behind. This is exactly what we find.

1. Sea Creatures Buried on the Tops of Mountains

Fossilized shellfish are found buried high in the Himalayas, the highest mountain range in today's world that was formed during the Flood (Psalm 104:8). How did these marine creatures get there? Our Bible verse tells us that at one time the whole earth—including the “high hills” of the pre-Flood world—were under water. So during the Flood, the rock layers that formed the Himalayas were laid down by water, and then later those high mountains were formed from them. <http://tinyurl.com/jw3djma>

FOUND JESUS THERE

The surgeon sat beside the boy's bed; the boy's parents sat across from him. “Tomorrow morning,” the surgeon began, “I'll open up your heart...”

“You'll find Jesus there,” the boy interrupted.

The surgeon looked up, annoyed. “I'll cut your heart open,” he continued, “to see how much damage has been done...”

“But when you open up my heart, you'll find Jesus in there.” The surgeon looked to the parents, who sat quietly.

“When I see how much damage has been done, I'll sew your heart and chest back up and I'll plan what to do next.”

“But you'll find Jesus in my heart. The Bible says He lives there. The hymns all say He lives there. You'll find Him in my heart.”

The surgeon had had enough. “I'll tell you what I'll find in your heart. I'll find damaged muscle, low blood supply, and weakened vessels. And I'll find out if I can make you well.”

“You'll find Jesus there too. He lives there.”

The surgeon left. The surgeon sat in his office, recording his notes from the surgery: “... damaged aorta, damaged pulmonary vein, widespread muscle degeneration. No hope for transplant, no hope for cure. Therapy: painkillers and bed rest. Prognosis:” here he paused, “death within one year.”

He stopped the recorder, but there was more to be said. “Why?” he asked aloud.

“Why did You do this? You've put him here; You've put him in this pain; and You've cursed him to an early death. Why?” The Lord answered and said, “The boy, My lamb, was not meant for your flock for long, for he is a part of My flock, and will forever be. Here, in My flock, he will feel no pain, and will be comforted as you cannot imagine. His parents will one day join him here, and they will know peace, and My flock will continue to grow.”

The surgeon's tears were hot, but his anger was hotter. “You created that boy, and You created that heart. He'll be dead in months. Why?”

The Lord answered, “The boy, My lamb, shall return to My flock, for he has done his duty: I did not put My lamb with your flock to lose him, but to retrieve another lost lamb.”

The surgeon wept.

The surgeon sat beside the boy's bed; the boy's parents sat across from him. The boy awoke and whispered, “Did you cut open my heart?”

“Yes,” said the surgeon.

“What did you find?” asked the boy.

“I found Jesus there,” said the surgeon.
