Spike

Hi! I'm Spike, the narwhal. I belong to a species of toothed whales that live in the cold waters of the Arctic Ocean. You'll probably recognize me by my long, straight tusk. Many people call this a horn, but it's actually a really (really!) long tooth—it can grow up to 10 feet long! It's made of ivory and grows through a hole in my lip. I eat fish, shrimp, and squid. Sometimes I'll dive over 5,000 feet to hunt for dinner. My favorite place to hunt is with my friends and family in the open water between ice floes. But I have to be careful. The ice could close in at any moment and trap me. I also have to lookout for hungry polar bears, walruses, and killer whales. There are lots of dangers in the Arctic, but God has designed me to live here. I have thick blubber that protects me from the cold, and because I don't have a dorsal (back) fin, I can easily swim under the ice floes to hunt or escape a hungry predator.

Size: 13–20 ft

Weight: 1.5 tons (3,000 lbs)

Diet: Fish, shrimp, and squid

Habitat: In the Arctic Ocean around the coast of Canada, Greenland, Norway, Alaska, and Russia

Life Is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what's to be,

A resting place along the road,

to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys.

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,

Far greater than we know.

For some the journey's quicker,

For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We'll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the Lord.
