☐ CHILDREN'S CORNER ○ ☐ ○ ☐

Hi! I'm Blizzard the polar bear. I live way up north in the Arctic region and spend much of my time hunting on the sea ice. I'm a very good swimmer and even have partial webbing between my toes. This allows me to swim between ice floes as I hunt. Because I spend so much time in the water, and have special features that allow me to do so, I'm classified as a marine mammal.

Most people think polar bears are white, but I'm not! I have black skin and am covered with hollow hairs. These hairs reflect the light, making me look white. This helps me blend in with my snowy environment. It's a pretty clever design by God! Before the Fall, the bear kind just ate plants, but now we eat meat. My favorite food is seal, but I'll also eat walrus, beluga whales, fish, bird eggs, and even reindeer, depending on what's available.

Like all baby polar bears, I was born in a den my mom dug in the snow. It was cozy and warm in there, keeping me safe from the cold air outside. Most polar bears have two babies at a time, though some have just one and others have three. A newborn weighs just one and a half pounds! But someday that tiny newborn will weigh half a ton and be the top predator of the Arctic sea ice.

Size: 6-9 ft; in some cases they can grow up to 11 ft

Weight: 800-1,500 lbs; in some cases, they can weigh over 2,000 lbs

Diet: Seals, fish, plants, and birds Habitat: Arctic tundra and sea ice

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking By A Child

A message every parent should read, because your children are watching and doing as you do, not as you say.

"When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another one.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you feed a stray cat, and I learned that it was good to be kind to animals.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make my favorite cake for me and I learned that little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I heard you say a prayer, and I knew there is a God I could always talk to and I learned to trust in God.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make a meal and take it to a friend who was sick, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you give of your time and money to help people who had nothing and I learned that those who have something should give to those who don't.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I felt you kiss me good night and I felt loved and safe.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw tears come from your eyes and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared and I wanted to be everything that I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be good and productive person when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I looked at you and wanted to say, "Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking."

Each of us – parent, grandparent or friend – influence the life of a child.
