Hammer

My name is Hammer, and I am a hammerhead shark. You can recognize me by the shape of my head. It's looks like, you guessed it, a hammer!

My special head was designed by the Creator, but scientists still don't fully know its purpose. Some think that maybe it allows for more space for important sensory organs to help me find my food. One of these special organs allows me to sense the electrical fields other animals give off. This helps me find my favorite meal, stingrays, which bury themselves under the sand. Another special design is that my hammerhead spreads my eyes far apart, letting me see farther and wider than most other sharks. As scientists continue studying sharks like me, they will learn even more amazing things that God designed my unique head to do. Our Creator's designs are always amazing!

Here are some other cool facts about the hammerhead shark:

- Newborn hammerheads have a round-shaped head that turns into the hammer shape as it gets older.
- Female hammerheads don't lay eggs like most fish—they give birth to live young!
- The number of baby sharks (also called pups) a female will give birth to can be anywhere from 6 to 40.

- Hammerhead sharks rarely attack humans.
- Like all creatures, hammerhead sharks were originally designed to be vegetarian (plant eaters), but when Adam and Eve sinned, death became part of God's creation. Now they eat other fish and sea creatures.
- Hammerhead sharks were created on Day Five of Creation Week.

Size: 13–20 feet long Weight: 500–1,000 lbs

Controlling the Tongue (part 2)–

With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men who have been made in God's likeness. My brothers, this should not be. Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring? My brothers, can a fig tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water. James 3:9-12

Isn't it interesting how good and evil can come forth from the same mouth? One minute we are praising God and the next we are cursing or tearing down our fellow man. Out of the same mouth that praises God comes insults, cursing, slander, gossip, etc., etc. The Bible tells us that this should not be. It also tells us that the tongue is very difficult to tame and control. I believe, though, that with God's help, it can be tamed and controlled.

Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. Ephesians 4:29

If we take time to think before we speak, we should be able to reach the point that we seldom allow any unwholesome talk to come out of our mouths. The tongue is an extremely powerful tool. It can be used for both good and evil. Let's do our best to take control of our tongues.

Don't just GO to church; BE the church
